SUMMER LONG CIRCUIT

6 NIGHTS | 7 DAYS

ABOUT KASHMIR SUMMER EXPEDITION

Kashmir is the thing of travel fantasies—heaven on earth! Introducing our Kashmir Backpacking itinerary, which combines adventure and relaxation to give you the best of both worlds on your trip. We have created the best itinerary for you because we are all well aware of Kashmir's popularity.

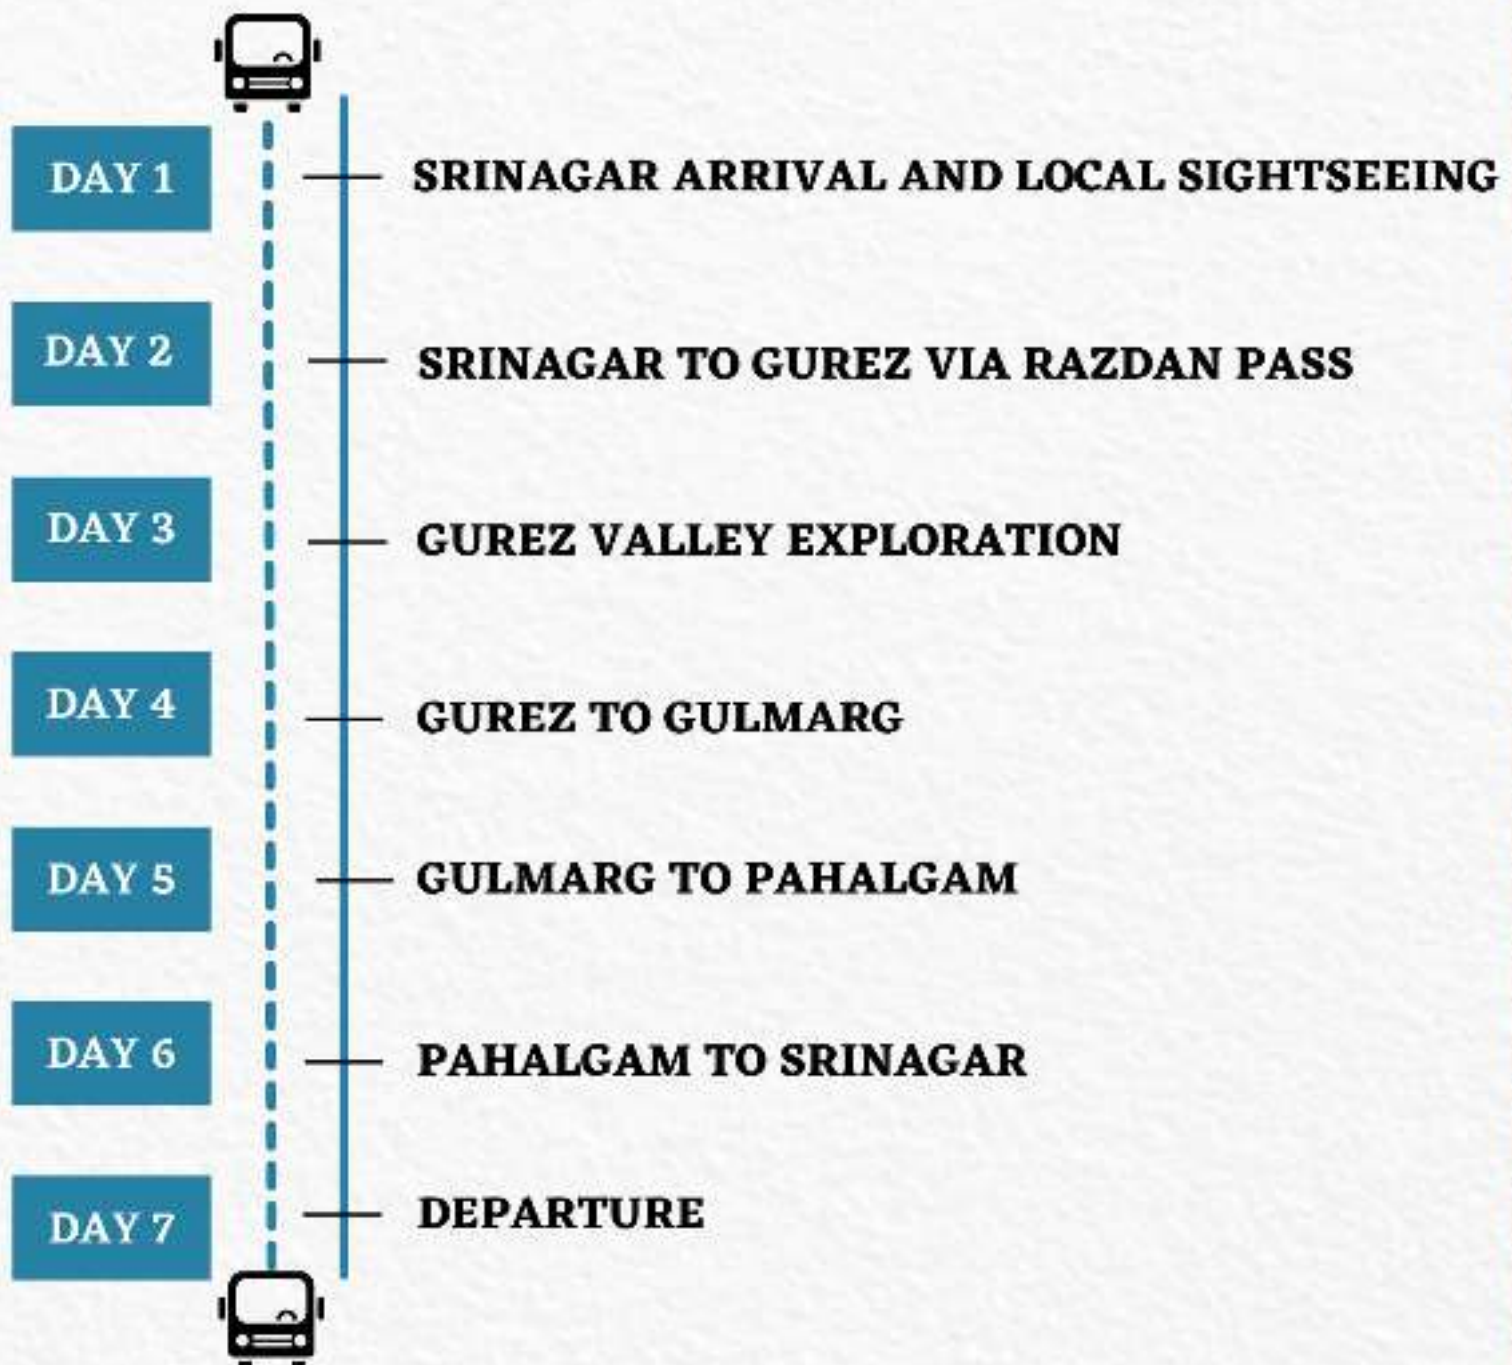

The most well-known travel destination in North India is Kashmir, which is also well-known to travellers from other parts of the country. We begin our journey in Srinagar, a stunning capital city. A centre for recreation, you can spend your time here taking advantage of the houseboat accommodations and a sunset shikara ride on the Dal Lake. We explore Kashmir's city for some additional adventure, and we also give you personal time and space to do so on your own.

Gulmarg is another popular tourist destination in Kashmir after Srinagar. A trip on the gondola is essential when visiting this valley because of the surrounding snow-covered mountains. You can also go to Affarwat Peak.

After visiting the well-known location, we set out to discover Kashmir's less-traveled areas. Gurez is listed first on the list. Gurez Valley, once a significant location on the ancient Silk Road, is currently the least visited tourist destination in this area. We stop by Tailal, the last Indian town before the Pakistani border. Additionally, we get to see how stunning Habba Khatoon Peak and Habba Khatoon Spring are!

We still have to stop in the valleys of Aru, Betab, and Chandwari before the journey is over! These valleys are dotted with lovely meadows where we can observe Kashmiri nomads' way of life, which still heavily depends on grazing their horses and cattle on these meadows! Of course, no trip to Kashmir would be complete without stopping by Pampore and Awantipora's saffron fields! We most certainly want to explore Kashmir in that manner. Join us on this backpacking adventure to experience the welcoming hospitality of locals and the breathtaking natural wonders of this paradise on earth.
