ABOUT DESTINATION

SRI LANKA

Experience the vibrant beauty of Sri Lanka as you journey through five unique destinations. Begin in Colombo, the lively capital city, where modern life meets colonial charm. Head into the hill country to explore Kandy, the cultural heart of the island, home to the sacred Temple of the Tooth Relic. Continue to the breathtaking highlands of Ella, surrounded by tea plantations, misty mountains, and iconic spots like Little Adam's Peak and the Nine Arches Bridge. Then unwind on the southern coast in Mirissa, known for its golden beaches and proximity to the historic Galle Fort. Finally, relax in Bentota, a serene beachside town perfect for water activities, boat rides, and watching baby turtles at a hatchery. This journey offers a perfect blend of nature, culture, and coastal bliss.

AARUSHI REDDY

We had an amazing time in Sri Lanka! The entire trip was so well-organized by Capture A Trip. From the beaches of Mirissa and Galle to the hills of Ella and Nuwara Eliya, everything was smooth and enjoyable. The hotels were great, and the experiences were totally worth it. We were placed with a fun group, and both our trip captain and photographer were super sweet and professional. They handled everyone so patiently and made the journey memorable. I never expected to have this much fun—can't wait to travel again with them!

MEGHANA PATEL

Huge thanks to the Capture A Trip team for arranging such a beautiful experience in Sri Lanka! From Colombo to Sigiriya, every part of the journey was filled with fun, learning, and great memories. The team ensured top-notch service, and I made wonderful friends along the way. A special shoutout to our captain for being so kind, energetic, and always ready to help. Truly a trip to remember!

RISHABH MALHOTRA

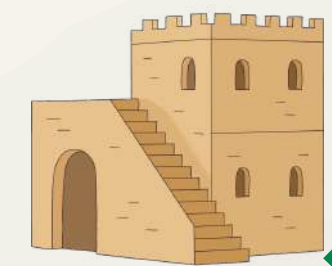

Hey everyone!

This was my first international trip and also my first time traveling with Capture A Trip, and I couldn't have asked for a better experience. Exploring Sri Lanka with their team was incredible—whether it was the lush green landscapes of Ella or the peaceful temples in Kandy. The management was on point, and everything felt perfectly timed. I'm already planning my next trip with them. Highly recommended!

DO'S IN SRI LANKA

- Respect local customs and traditions. Dress modestly, especially when visiting temples or religious sites.
- Remove your shoes and hats before entering temples and homes.
- Use your right hand for giving and receiving things, as the left hand is considered unclean.
- Try the local cuisine and street food — it's delicious and a big part of the experience!
- Carry a reusable water bottle and stay hydrated, but only drink bottled or purified water.
- Bargain politely in markets and shops, but always keep a friendly attitude.
- Use sunscreen and insect repellent to protect yourself from the sun and mosquitoes.
- Respect wildlife and nature — avoid feeding animals and stick to marked trails.
- Learn a few basic Sinhala or Tamil phrases; locals appreciate the effort.
- Use registered taxis or tuk-tuks and agree on the fare beforehand.
- Carry some cash as small vendors may not accept cards.

DON'TS IN SRI LANKA

- Don't wear revealing clothing especially when visiting religious or rural areas.
- Don't touch someone's head — it's considered disrespectful.
- Don't point your feet at people or religious objects; feet are seen as unclean.
- Don't take photos inside temples or of locals without permission.
- Don't litter or damage the environment. Keep Sri Lanka clean.
- Don't engage in public displays of affection, as this may offend local sensibilities.
- Don't drink tap water; always use bottled or filtered water.
- Don't discuss politics or the civil war openly with strangers.
- Don't buy or possess illegal drugs — penalties are severe.
- Don't rush or show impatience; Sri Lanka has a laid-back vibe, so go with the flow.
