PRESENTS

The Pause Project

WHAT IS THE PAUSE PROJECT?

The Pause Project is a 4-day mental wellness retreat for anyone ready to grow, heal, and create a better version of themselves.

It's your invitation to slow down, breathe, and give yourself the space you've been craving. In a judgement-free space, you'll release old patterns, reclaim your energy, and remember who you truly are.

Through thoughtfully designed workshops and practices, we go beyond quick fixes, gently uncovering what's been holding you back and guiding you toward lasting change.

Because when you pause, you see clearly.

When you see clearly, you choose differently.

When you choose differently, you live your life fully.

WHO IS THIS PROGRAM FOR?

- You have been “okay” for everyone else, but not for yourself.
- You have carried guilt, grief, or hurt that never found a place to rest.
- You have smiled on the outside while feeling heavy inside.
- You have longed for space to breathe, to feel, and to just be.
- You have given so much to others that you forgot what it’s like to feel full.
- You have reached a point where you don’t just want to cope.
- You want to come home to yourself.

THE HEART BEHIND YOUR PROGRAM

Anandita Kaul, founder of The Pause Project, is a Mental Wellness Coach, certified yoga instructor, and Art of Living trainer with over eight years of experience. Known as a “mother-giver,” she creates safe, nurturing spaces for growth, healing, and simply being.

With a background as Marketing & HR Head, she has impacted over 7,000 lives through yoga, meditation, and mindfulness.

During the pandemic, she guided 5,000+ people to calmness and stillness. In 2020, she founded House of Ananda, curating soulful experiences and wellness programs, and has since led 30+ corporate sessions, inspiring workplaces to embrace mental health.

Anandita humbly calls herself a lifelong student of the mind and life, feeling privileged to guide others to pause, breathe, and reconnect with their inner light.

✦ DAY 1

ARRIVAL | THE FIRST PAUSE

The moment you step into this space, something shifts.
It's quieter here, not just outside, but inside you.

The rush, the to-do lists, the noise of life... begins to fade.
Today is about landing in your body, in your breath, in this present moment.

You'll meet your facilitators and the circle of people who will walk this path alongside you.

Through gentle grounding practices, you'll create the intention for your journey here.

You're not here to "do", you're here to be.

Your emotional state: Unburdened, safe, and ready to explore yourself without masks.

The gifts you'll carry forward: A clear intention for your days ahead and a deep readiness to heal and transform.

✦ DAY 2

THE UNBURDENING- EMOTIONAL RELEASE & HEALING

This is where the inner walls begin to soften. Where the weight you've been quietly carrying starts to lift. Tears may come. Laughter may rise unexpectedly. You may feel years of unspoken words and stored tension finally loosening their grip.

Through guided breathwork, emotional release practices, and heart-opening exercises, you'll go inward like never before, creating space for genuine, soul-level healing.

Your emotional state: A deep sense of release, lightness, and permission to feel everything without fear.

The gifts you'll carry forward: A heart unburdened, the courage to sit with discomfort, and the freedom to feel fully alive.

✦ DAY 3

BREAKTHROUGH – FROM RELEASE TO RISE

After releasing what no longer serves you, comes the rise. This is the day you begin to see yourself through new eyes, stronger, lighter, and rooted in your own truth.

Through guided practices in self-expression, conscious boundary-setting, and reclaiming your personal energy, you'll learn how to reshape the way you relate to yourself, others, and the world around you.

Your emotional state: Grounded, grateful, and ready to live from a place of inner stillness.

The gifts you'll carry forward: Practical tools, soulful connections, and a renewed sense of who you are.

✦ DAY 4

HOMECOMING | CARRYING THE STILLNESS WITHIN

You came here with questions, with a restless heart, with the weight of life on your shoulders. You leave with something far greater, clarity, peace, and the knowing that you can return to this calm anytime you choose.

The final day is about anchoring your transformation. Through reflection, sharing circles, and grounding practices, you'll weave your learnings into a simple, personal blueprint for your daily life.

Your emotional state: Grounded in your own strength, with a deep sense of self-trust.

The gifts you'll carry forward: Confidence, clarity, and a renewed vision for the life you want to create—one that feels true to you.

YOUR TRAVEL GLIMPSE
